LEST YE FORGET

Promises That Are Easily Broken and Soon Forgotten

Some twenty years ago when the citizens of Maysville went down in their jeans pants and dug up a mere bagatelle of something over a $100,000 and gave it as a freewill offering to C. P. Huntington and a few other poor devils, in order that the C. and O. might not escape to the North side of Ohio river, the shibboleth and warcry of the shouters on the hustings vociferating in behalf of C. P. H. and others, was among other great blessings to be derived by retaining the road on this side, a plentiful supply of coal at all times, especially in winter, when most needed.

How is it today? Notwithstanding millions of bushels are carried over the road every week, very little is dropped here—except occasionally when a bushel or two is fished under the somber shade of night by pilferers—and as a real Maysville today is on the border of a coal famine.

Were it not for the grand old river that peacefully flows in our front, upon whose broad bosom is carried the main supply of coal we consume, this city would be in a dilemma if it depended entirely upon another source.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Eighth Annual Tobacco Fair and Farmer's Institute are things of the past. The combination has proven one of the greatest events in the history of Maysville. I take this method of returning thanks to all who have so generously assisted by contributions of money and personal efforts to promote the success of the Tobacco Fair and Farmer's Institute. While I may not be at the head of another Tobacco Fair I think that the citizens of Maysville and the farmers of the White Burley District will make a great mistake if they fail to perpetuate the annual meetings for the purpose of exhibiting the products of our farms in the future as they have in the past at our Tobacco Fairs.

With thanks to everybody, I remain yours very truly,
JOHN DULEY,
President Board of Trade.

IT WAS BOOZE

Responsible for Bogar's Injury and Not a C. and O. Train

John Bogar, the colored man, found Sunday night lying on the C. and O. track near the ice factory with a fractured skull and other bodily injuries, was taken Monday morning to Shaanahan & Co.'s camp below town where he is being cared for.

Later developments indicate that the man did not receive his wounds by being hit by a passing train, but being very drunk, and in crossing over the track, he stumbled and in falling struck his forehead on a tie or rail.

Mr. George Rudy, who is employed nearby, heard the man groaning some fifteen minutes before the freight train passed East, but supposed it to be some drunken person and paid little attention to it.

When he did investigate he found Bogar lying in the middle of the Westbound track with his head resting on the rail. The position of the body and the distance from the East track was such as to clearly demonstrate that the train was not responsible for the accident.

The man was simply blind drunk and is himself responsible for the critical condition he now finds himself.

J. H. Washburn, First Sergeant Troop B, Second United States Cavalry, is visiting his brother, E. T. Washburn of this city. Mr. Washburn is stationed at Fort Assiniboine, Montana, and is spending his furlough at his Kentucky home. He spent two years in the Philippine Islands and has experienced what soldier-life is.

A CHASE

Up Third Street After a Chicken Thief

Walking along the street he would hardly be picked out as a sprinter and a winner in a three hundred yard dash. But he is game and a hanger on, even if he is old and wind blown.

It was this way—

The aforesaid gentleman is a Third street grocer, and the other day while sitting in his business place cogitating over the price of butter and eggs, his eagle eye detected a theft committed right at his front door.

Exposed for sale on the outside were some nicely dressed chickens—real appetizers and worth 50c and 75c apiece.

A young man, whose propensities for evil largely overbalances the good that is in him, happening along espied the tempting and choice fowls, reached up and nipped one from off the hook and hid it under his coat.

Here is where the fun and chase began. Leaping from his chair he started in hot pursuit. The culprit saw him coming and he too hot-footed. In passing Mr. John Short's gate the young man threw the chicken over the fence, thinking no doubt, the merchant would give up the chase. He was wrong in his calculation for he continued right on and collared him in front of the Postoffice.

After delivering a caustic lecture to the wayward youth, and making him pay 50 cents for the chicken, he let him go.

The champion owl-killer of Maysville is Master Vincent Ellis of Fourth street. He went gunning with his trusty rifle last night and bagged a ferocious looking little screech owl that has been making night hideous.

The Enquirer says: "The Cincinnati delegation to the Maysville Tobacco Fair went to see the Fair and to indicate interest in the doings of a neighboring town and to boom and advertise Cincinnati. And there is no question that the Queen City crowd succeeded in doing these things. The delegation was received at Maysville by an unusually large crowd. Maysville swarmed with people. The streets were packed almost from curb to curb with the buggies of surrounding countrymen. The Opera-house was packed to the walls. The Cincinnati delegation occupied the stage and was given a rousing reception. John Shuff made a bright speech, introducing W. A. Bennett of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Bennett 'brought down the house' when he urged the tobacco growers to stand firmly against the encroachments of the tobacco trust."

Mrs. Thomas Winter of Court street left this morning to join her husband at Hot Springs, Ark. After a stay at the Springs they will journey to Plainville, Texas, where Mr. Winter has vested interests.

George Edwin Bruce, the pretty one-year-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Galbreath, died this morning at 4:45 at the home in East Second street of pneumonia, after an illness of one week. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Richard Spalding of Ft. Thomas, Ky., has been the guest of Miss Grace Anderson at Point au View.

EVANGELIST FIFE

Passed Away in St. Louis Recently of Heart Disease

Evangelist W. P. Fife, for many years active in evangelistic work throughout the United States, died recently in St. Louis of heart disease.

He was the leader in the great religious revival we had here in Maysville about thirteen years ago, which resulted in the conversion of a large number of persons.

The seed sown by him has brought forth fruit in the hearts and lives of hundreds of people in Maysville.

The revival services being held at the Third Street Methodist Episcopal church are increasing in interest. Quite a good crowd attended last night. Dr. Baker preached a very helpful and impressive sermon using the words, "He saved us," found in Titus 3:5 as his text. The singing under his leadership is truly inspiring. He is not content until everyone sings, or, as he says "look as if they would like to." Beginning today services will be held each afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. These services will be in the nature of Bible readings and you are invited to come and bring your Bible with you. Services each evening beginning at 7 o'clock. Come everybody and enjoy these most helpful and inspiring services.

"One of these is the much-beloved 'Joe' Blackburn of Kentucky, perhaps the most popular man in the Senate, a typical Kentuckian of the old school. ASLEEP AT HIS POST

Is all right if it is in an iron bed post that came from WINTER'S. These Iron Beds are all right—everyway quality, beauty, price, comfort. This is one of our happiest purchases. We had a tedious time with iron beds but patience won the fight; we patiently kept on searching the market until we finally found the Hot Line. Our mature judgment is that we got the best line of iron beds in the entire market.

The regular price of this bed is $6; our special price is $4.85. Not only is this a beautiful design but a very comfortable bed and a delightful bargain.

"I BELIEVE the English women will gain the complete right to vote in three years, and that in ten years their American sisters will also enjoy this right," said Dr. Sarah M. Siewers, one of Ohio's leading woman suffragists, who has been closely following the cause in Great Britain.

It is suggested that the government cash balance is so large that $117,000,000 of the public debt maturing next year can be paid off in a lump without inconvenience. Here is the first ammunition for the democrats in the next campaign. They have always regarded surplus as a synonym for superfluity.

STEPS are being taken at Lexington to introduce manual training in the Public Schools. This is one of the most advanced steps possible in the cause of education and is the main principle in rounding out the real and the practical in the child-mind! Why not endeavor to have manual training adopted in the Maysville Public Schools when the new buildings are finished and occupied?

THE Free-Traders are distressed just now because the National revenue exceeds the National expenses. They profess to be able to remedy all that if only the voters give them a chance, and in the light of history no one doubts their ability to make good their professions and quickly put the balance on the other side of the ledger.

The party will be on the canal zone until March 18, and will reach New York on their return March 25. The commission will afford them every facility for investigating canal work.

Women as Centenarians.

Once more woman has demonstrated her superior vitality, to the discomfort of mere man. Of the centenarians who died in the United Kingdom during last year 42 were women and only a paltry 16 were men; in 1907 the numbers were 36 and 22, respectively, and in 1904, 41 and 22. During the last ten years the women who died after completing 100 years, at least, of life, exceeded the male centenarians by 227 to 177—an advantage of nearly 85 per cent.

Tested by length of life woman can equally claim the superiority. Bridget Danaher, who died last March in Limerick, was said to be 112 years old; Mary O'Hare, another daughter of Erin, was only two years younger, and Mrs. Sarah Egan, of King's county, was credited with 107 years, while Bridget Somers, who ended her days in Sligo Workhouse in March, 1904, had reached the ripe old age of 114. So healthy is Ireland that it is said she has at present more than 500 centenarians, while England, Scotland and Wales can only muster 192 among them.

Negro Children Like Poetry.

"Negro children are fond of poetry—more so than white children."

This is what Mrs. Carrie Whitney, public librarian, says.

"Not long ago," she continued, "I saw a negro boy in here, deeply engrossed in a rather large book. I walked gently up behind him. What do you suppose he was reading? You couldn't guess in a year. It was Dante's Inferno. His little face showed eagerness, too, to learn of that terrible picture Dante drew."

"The poems of Eugene Field are particularly attractive to the negro children. And every few days one of them makes a request for the poem which says 'An' the Goblins 'll get you, ef you don't watch out.'"

Postage Stamps of the World.

The total number of all known varieties of postage stamps issued by all the governments of the world up to the present time is 20,496, of which 6,153 are apportioned to the British empire and 14,343 to the rest of the world. Europe has issued 4,361, Asia 3,856, Africa, 4,469, America 4,688, the West Indies 1,637, and Oceania 1,455.

These figures comprise only standard varieties of postage stamps, and do not include postcards, letter cards, stamped envelopes or wrappers.

The Wandering of a Seagull.
On October 25 last there was shot at Onaka, on Lake Lemna a seagull, aged about 16 months, which, the Country Gentleman states, was found to be wearing on its claw a silver ring engraved with the words "Vogelstation, Rossitten 20." Rossitten is situated in the Lido of the Courland lagoon, between Konigsberg and Memel, in the Baltic, 1,500 kilometers from the Lake of Geneva. M. Forel of Lausanne communicated with Dr. J. Thienemann, director of the ornithological station at Rossitten. According to the latest notes, the gull No. 20 was hatched there, and was marked with the ring when a few weeks old, before it could fly, on July 4, 1905. It seems probable that it had thus made two winter migrations before it fell a victim to the human barbarian.—Westminster Gazette.

Mrs. Gayley—Three years, my dear.
Gayley—How do you know it's three years?
Mrs. Gayley—Because I've worn this dress that long and I got it the last time I caught you.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Maysville readers have seen constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit. A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
